

Travel Award Application

Please submit to the Chair of the Placement Committee

(See Administrative and Committee assignments at:

https://blogs.uoregon.edu/philosophy/about/administrative_resources/)

Full information is available at: <https://philosophy.uoregon.edu/graduate/funding/>

PhD students are entitled to two conference reimbursements of $600 each and one interview reimbursement, over their whole period of enrollment in the PhD program. MA students are entitled to one conference or interview reimbursement. Reimbursements are made after this application is approved, after you have traveled, and after receipts for travel, hotel, and meals as well as conference documentation (you may present or just attend) are submitted to the Philosophy Department.

Please note the following:

- Applications are reviewed throughout the year in the order they are received.
- Applications should be submitted at least 1 month prior to travel. Earlier submission is encouraged.
- May 15th is the deadline to submit a travel award application for travel occurring within the current academic year (July 1-June 30)
- Students who have already received their allotment of reimbursements may submit an application for consideration, however approval is based on available funding for the academic year that travel occurs (July 1-June 30). Decisions will be made after May 15th.
