

REEES Graduation Deadlines

In the term you plan to graduate...

WEEK TWO

Friday: Last day to apply for degree online at the Graduate School website <https://gradweb.uoregon.edu/main/exitquestionnaire/selectTerm.asp>

Here's a link to a Grad School webpage with information about getting ready to graduate: <http://gradschool.uoregon.edu/getting-ready-graduate>

WEEK THREE

SCHEDULE YOUR THESIS PRESENTATION:

- Schedule Your Thesis Presentation with your committee members.
- Let the Graduate Coordinator know the date and time so a room can be scheduled for you to present your thesis.

FORMATTING YOUR MANUSCRIPT:

Get to work early on formatting your manuscript - waiting until the last minute to address formatting causes more work. REEES does not require a particular style, but you must be consistent throughout your manuscript.

More info: <http://gradschool.uoregon.edu/thesis-dissertation/>

To your thesis defense, bring the following forms:

Thesis/Dissertation Approval Form – you fill this form online, print it out and collect signatures from your chair, co-chair and advisor: <https://gradschool.uoregon.edu/sites/gradschool1.uoregon.edu/files/forms2/Thesis-Diss%20Approval.pdf>

WEEK EIGHT

MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY – The Graduate Coordinator's deadline to submit your statement of completion for your degree. Be sure that the Graduate Coordinator knows how you are meeting all of your requirements, and review your program plan with the Graduate Coordinator.
