

Requirements Satisfied: _____

Advisor signature/date

Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures
Undergraduate Major Requirements, Japanese Linguistics-Intensive Option

Student: _____ UO ID (95): _____

Email: _____

All students declaring the Japanese major must meet with an advisor. Turn this form in to the EALL office (308 Friendly) after you've received your advisor's signature:

Advisor's signature: _____ Date declared: _____

Majors must also meet with an advisor each spring before Fall registration and again two terms before graduation:

Date: _____ Advisor's signature: _____

Date: _____ Advisor's signature: _____

Date: _____ Advisor's signature: _____

Date: _____ Advisor's signature: _____

47 graded credits are required from the upper-division courses below. Any course in which you receive a grade of D or below will not be counted toward your major. If you place above the 301 level in Japanese language, you must draft an individualized program with your EALL faculty advisor.

Course	Term/Year	Grade	Credits
Third-Year Japanese:
JPN 301
JPN 302
JPN 303
Two upper division language courses beyond 3rd year (JPN411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438)
JPN _____
JPN _____
Three linguistics survey courses from JPN315, EALL209, EALL440, 441, LING311. JPN315 must be taken if available.
JPN/EALL/LING _____
JPN/EALL/LING _____
JPN/EALL/LING _____
Two advisor-approved upper division EALL linguistics courses (EALL440, 441, 442, 443, 486)
EALL _____
EALL _____
One advisor-approved upper division linguistics course offered in EALL or Linguistics
JPN/EALL/LING _____
	Total credits (must total 47)		