

Folklore and Public Culture Specialization Completion Checklist

---

Process Overview: Meet with the Folklore and Public Culture Director of Graduate Studies to review this checklist during your graduation term; bring this completed checklist and your unofficial transcript. Once you have the form completed and signed, submit these materials to the Folklore and Public Culture Program Secretary (PLC 118) no later than Noon on the Friday of Dead Week. When you apply to graduate with the Graduate School, be sure to select the Folklore and Public Culture Graduate Specialization.

Name: _____ Student ID#: _____

Home Department/Program: _____

Graduation Term/Year: _____

Course Requirements (at least 16 credits)

Required courses: 9 credits

	Term Taken	Grade
FLR 681 History of Folklore Theory and Research (5 credits)	_____	_____
FLR 550 Folklore in the Public Sector <sup>1</sup> (4 credits)	_____	_____

Electives: a minimum of 7 credits chosen from the following <sup>2</sup>

	Term Taken	Grade
FLR 511 Folklore and Religion (4 credits)	_____	_____
FLR 515 Folklore and Foodways (4 credits)	_____	_____
FLR 583 Folklore and Mythology of the British Isles (4 credits)	_____	_____
FLR 595 Folklore Fieldwork (4 credits)	_____	_____
FLR 605 Reading and Conference: [Topic]	_____	_____
FLR 606 Field Studies: [Topic]	_____	_____

<sup>1</sup> One fieldwork/public folklore course, chosen from FLR 595 (fieldwork), FLR 550 (public folklore), or another Folklore course or a course taught by core faculty approved by the Director of Graduate Studies in the Folklore and Public Culture Program.

<sup>2</sup> FLR 550 and FLR 684 are also applicable if not taken to satisfy the fieldwork and public folklore section.

<sup>3</sup> Courses must be taken for a letter grade and grade must be a B- or better to count for the specialization. An overlap maximum of 4 credits may be permitted with permission of the Folklore and Public Culture Director of Graduate Studies

_____
Student Signature

_____
Date

I certify that the above student has fulfilled all requirements for the Folklore and Public Culture Graduate Specialization:

_____
FLR Director of Graduate Studies

_____
Date