

Department of German and Scandinavian Requirements for the MINOR IN GERMAN

1. The German minor correlates well with studies that have an international or European concentration. It is particularly useful for students of international studies, international business, European history, medieval studies, sociology, political science, journalism, linguistics, art history, music history, other languages, theater, and related fields.
 2. German minors must be proficient in the German language, typically demonstrated by satisfactory completion of the Third-Year German language sequence (GER 313).
 3. The German minor requires seven German courses (28 credits in total). These must include the Second Year-German and Third Year-German language sequence and beyond this may include courses in language, literature, or culture and grades of higher than C- or P (pass) must be earned in all courses used to satisfy requirements. Among these seven courses:
 - Only one course taught in English may be applied to the minor
 - One course may be taken pass/no pass
 - At least twelve credits must be taken in the UO Department of German and Scandinavian
 - Grades of higher than C- or P (pass) must be earned in all courses used to satisfy requirements for the minor
 4. No courses from other departments count toward the minor in German.
 5. The following courses may not be used to satisfy minor requirements:
 - GER 199 Special Studies
 - GER 405 Reading and Conference
 - GER 406 Special Problems
 - GER 408 Workshop
 - GER 409 Practicum*
 - GER 470 German for Reading Knowledge I
 - GER 471 German for Reading Knowledge II
- *GER 409: Practicum Teaching Internship (4 credits) may count toward minor
6. Since all courses are not offered every year, plans should be made well in advance so that students can take prerequisites for 400-level courses. Specific questions should be addressed to departmental undergraduate German advisors.
